

Hermite interpolation at Pollaczek zeros

Giuseppe Mastroianni¹ and Incoronata Notarangelo²

¹University of Basilicata, Department of Mathematics, Computer Sciences and Economics, giuseppe.mastroianni@unibas.it

²University of Torino, Department of Mathematics “Giuseppe Peano”, incoronata.notarangelo@unito.it

The Authors consider an Hermite-type interpolation process and show its convergence in weighted function spaces, under proper necessary and sufficient conditions on the weights.

The main difficulty is that the Pollaczek zeros have not arcsin distribution. The proof is reduced to the behavior of a Lagrange polynomial.